

DIGITAL THEATRE+

FOR MUSICAL THEATRE

Inspire your musical theatre students with a range of show-stopping productions and contextual materials on Digital Theatre+.

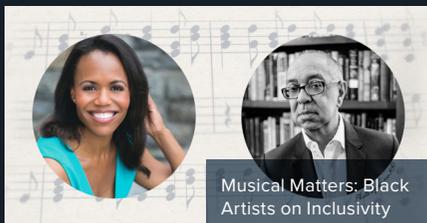

With an array of resources accessible online at any time, you'll be able to give your students everything they need to deepen their understanding and appreciation of musical theatre and unlock their own potential, helping them to excel in their studies and beyond.

PRODUCTIONS

From classic favorites such as Funny Girl, starring Sheridan Smith as Fanny Brice, to contemporary new musicals like From Up Here and Lift from Perfect Pitch, with Digital Theatre+ you'll have access to a range of musicals to engage and inspire every student. Plus, as the exclusive educational partner of BroadwayHD, Digital Theatre+ provides your institution with some of the service's most exciting productions, including She Loves Me, Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn, and Falsettos.

INTERVIEWS

Explore inclusivity and representation in musical theatre with exclusive interview series Musical Matters, featuring some of Broadway's leading talent, including Chita Rivera, David Henry Hwang, Ali Stroker, Nikki Renee Daniels and George C. Wolfe. You can also access an exciting collection of interviews with leading practitioners from the theatre industry, touching on everything from composing (Orlando Gough) and writing (Lee Hall) to sound and video design (Mic Pool).

WRITTEN RESOURCES

Our reliable and engaging contextual resources will equip your students with ready-made materials to support their musical theatre education. Discover insightful essays from theatre academics – including an essay on Funny Girl by Joe Deer of Wright State University – perusal scripts to accompany productions on the platform, exercises to develop performance skills, and in-depth director notebooks about specific shows that give students direct access to the director's process.

Access the above resources, plus hundreds of other captivating productions and educational materials for Theatre and the Performing Arts with Digital Theatre+.
