

Activities

Access a series of ready-made practical exercises designed to save you time creating engaging and relevant activities for your classes. Click the titles below to access your resources.

Universal Questions

This flexible resource provides you with a range of questions and activities that can be shared with your students to guide their study of any play or production. The questions and tasks are intentionally non-specific to provide you with a greater level of flexibility, so they may need to be tailored to the specific play you are studying or the context of your students.

This resource is also available for the teaching of ELA. Click here to learn more.

Choice Charts

Explore interpretive choices with this collection of exercises and tasks, designed to support students to assess creative choices across disciplines. Each Choice Chart sets out tasks for reviewing a live production, studying practitioners, researching prescribed companies/styles and character analysis.

To use this resource, simply select the most appropriate project from each row of the chart in relation to the productions, practitioners, or companies you are studying. Every exercise comes complete with a suggested outcome and an idea of resources you could use for inspiration on Digital Theatre+.
