

An Introduction to Production and Technical Theatre

Access a broad range of resources designed to support teaching the fundamentals of production and technical theatre, and the development core skills. All of our content and resources are designed with state learning standards in mind. The links below will provide you with a perfect gateway to discovering those resources.

Top resource picks to get you started

Click the titles below to access your resources.

A-Z of Technical Theatre

This guide provides an A-Z list of all the people involved in the technical side of theatre production. From choreographers to lighting designers and wardrobe assistants, this handy resource offers a concise insight into each role and how they contribute to bringing a performance to life.

My West End

Give your students exclusive insights into the theatre making process with My West End. This exciting series provides an in-depth look into the roles of backstage practitioners and a world of career opportunities, from wig-making and wardrobe, to lighting and stage operations. Plus, accompanying worksheets mean you can test your students' learning.

Theatre Production: Roles and Relationships

This information pack is designed to illuminate the production process, the creative, technical and production relationships, and the flow between them all. There's useful information on each stage of the process as well as details of the people involved at each stage.

Evaluation Template: Design/Technical Theatre

This pack will give your students everything they need to successfully analyze design and technical elements of a production, with tips and tools to guide them through essay writing, helping them to excel in their studies.

